

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF ARKANSAS
32nd BIENNIAL CONVENTION

Saturday, April 18, 2015

ANNOUNCING

An important biennial convention of the League of Women Voters of Arkansas will meet for organizational planning and reports on LVW activity around the state. Acting as host, the League of Women Voters of Washington County has arranged to meet in Fayetteville at the University of Arkansas Law School, April 18, 2015. Attending the convention will be special guest, Anita Lock, member of the Board of Directors of the League of Women Voters of the United States (LWVUS). Ms. Loch, from Wisconsin, was recently elected to the national board at the 2014 LWVUS Convention.

During a morning business session, delegates will consider a new voter services program, leadership involvement at the state level, advocacy, and possible incentive grants to support local Leagues in membership and program development. This meeting will take place in Room 342, Waterman Hall of the Law School. All members are urged to attend to help strengthen state and local LWV activity. Lunch will be provided at no charge to LWV members who have pre-registered. Pre-registered non-members may purchase a lunch for $10.00. There will be no registration charge. Each local League should select voting delegates based on membership: Fort Smith – 2, Pulaski County – 3, and Washington County – 4.

A LWVAR program on the topic, Landlord-Tenant Rights and Responsibilities in Arkansas, will take place in the upstairs court room of the University of Arkansas School of Law from 2:00 to 4:00 pm. A panel, moderated by Professor Robert B. Leflar, will represent various interests to discuss the subject and answer questions. Local ordinances involving housing and current legislation have made this an important topic and may be considered for a LWVAR study. This program is open to the public at no charge.

Those attending the convention who plan to stay overnight in the area are invited to a social gathering Saturday evening and an outing to Crystal Bridges in Bentonville on Sunday.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: APRIL 13. Registration forms are online at lwvarwc.org and www.lwv-arkansas.org. More information will be sent to those who pre-register.
