

PROJECTS ASSIGNED AT THE 2017 AR LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS STATE CONVENTION
	PROJECT	ASSIGNMENT	CONTRIBUTORS
1	Abuse in registration of new voters and naturalized citizens in Ft. Smith	Investigate abuse of voter registration of new naturalized citizens occurring in Ft. Smith	Angela Danovi Hilary Haddigan
2	Reprint of Government in Arkansas	Reach out to law schools in Fayetteville, Little Rock and the Clinton School to ask for assistance with revisions and reprinting	Beth Barham Hilary Haddigan
3	Money Market and New Investment	Leadership to meet with our financial planner at Arvest and make decisions on changes to League Investment Portfolio	Leadership Team
4	Local League recruitment and organization	Establish a plan for recruitment and organization of new and existing local Leagues and supporting local Leagues with revitalization and transitions	Pat Landes Hilary Haddigan
5	WHITE PAPER on Voter ID laws and actions	Work with Citizens First Congress to research voter ID laws and develop a WHITE PAPER with recommendations for action steps League can take	Ruth Shepherd and Carol Young
6	REAL ID Act of 2005 enforcement and Enhanced Drivers License	Ruth Shepherd and Carol Young will research and write a WHITE PAPER on how to fulfill the federal requirements, but lower the additional documentation required by Arkansas	Ruth Shepherd and Carol Young
7	Proposed amendment to Arkansas Constitution requiring an ID to vote.	Local Leagues directed to work on defeating the amendment.	All local Leagues
8	Privatizing Schools	Bring to public awareness the issue of allowing public funds to be used for private schools	Carol Young Nell Matthews (?) (Wash Co - has new group working on this topic)
9	LWVAR study comparing Cross Check vs ERIC as a system for updating voter roles in Arkansas	Prepare a study and set of consensus questions for establishing a LWVAR position on updating voter roles. Attend Citizens First Congress to promote fair updating of voter roles as a priority issue.	Joyce Hale (not on state LT, but willing to work on this effort) Beth Barham